2. Read the following poem and do the activities that follow.

Me and my dog go out for a walk,
and its plain for all to see,
that it's really not me who is walking the dog,
It's the dog who is out walking me.
My dog is quite a bit bigger than me,
and so she can easily drag me round town.
Some times she gets tired, lays down and won't move,
and we're stuck there until way after dark.
At the end of the day, sh'll sprint us back home.

My poor feet, they won't touch the ground.

Despite all of this, I love every walk.

I'm a pet of the world's greatest hound.
